Alumni Weekend/Reunions '83

"Come one . . . come all."

June 3, 4 & 5, 1983. Governor Dummer Academy, Byfield, Massachusetts

Mark the date on your calendar now and plan to attend - June 3, 4 and 5. Join your classmates for a "fabulous fun-filled weekend" - parties, conversation, sports, music, dance. Contact your class agent for details for your class activities and watch for mailings from the school.

Of course, all other alumni from non-reunion classes are invited to attend.

The Governor Dummer Scene

Homecoming Tradition Continues

The first weekend in October brought over one hundred alumni to GDA for the third annual Homecoming Day. Alumni met for informative meetings, athletic contests, and to renew friendships.

The day began with the Class Agents' Meeting. Twenty agents participated in reviewing the year ahead in alumni fund-raising and activities. The afternoon brought some close and exciting games for GDA teams against Buckingham Browne & Nichols, and an alumni and faculty reception at the Mansion House. Even with rainy weather, Homecoming 1982 was a marvelous day and, again provided alumni a chance to gather on campus in the fall.

Parents Day

October 30 brought a beautiful fall day and hundreds of parents to GDA to meet with faculty about the progress of their children, to see other parents and friends, and to watch exciting athletic contests against Groton School. All of the teams played enthusiastically for the large crowds, and the competition was lively.

Bob Anderson presents Mac Murphy with ISL Certificate.

National Merit Program Cites GDA Seniors

Congratulations are extended to eleven GDA seniors who have been recognized for their achievements in the National Merit Scholarship program. Those students who are semi-finalists are Arthur Cohen, Aaron Halpern, Rebecca Riehl and student body president John Sylvain. Receiving letters of commendation were Heidi Heasley, Elea Kemler, Jeff Knight, Rick Morse, Sue Towler, Erika Walberg and Amy Welch. Approximately 1% of high school seniors throughout the country earn letters of commendation and fewer than one-half of 1% achieve semi-finalist status.

Class Secretaries' Program Underway. Class Notes to be Expanded

Under the leadership of John English '88, we are underway with our new class secretaries' program. In the belief that alumni want to hear about and stay in touch with each other, volunteers have been sought to serve as correspondents for each class. The secretary will write his/her classmates quarterly for individual "News and Notes" for publication in the Archon. Classes which are not covered at this time are: '31, '33, '34, '35, '36, '37, '38, '40, '41, '42, '44, '51, '53, '54, '55, '56, '60, '63, '66, '72, '75, '80.

If your class does not have a secretary and you would like to help, please contact the Alumni Office for details. We'd like to have you. The names of the new class secretaries are printed in the "Class Notes" section of this issue.

Headmaster Search Update

Beginning in July the Search Committee began the formal process of seeking the most highly qualified person to assume leadership of Governor Dummer Academy.

Faculty, alumni, trustees, students, and parents were surveyed by the Search Committee to develop criteria for the new Headmaster. A specialist consultant firm, Carl Andrews Associates, was hired to assist in the search after interviews with four firms which offer such services to private schools. During September the educational community was made aware of the GDA search.

To date we have received more than seventy applications, of whom ten candidates have been interviewed by the committee. From this group will be selected a smaller group of semi-finalists. Then will follow visits to GDA, further research on the candidates' backgrounds, additional interviews with the Committee, and visits to the campuses of the finalists by members of the Committee. The Committee hopes to bring its recommendations to the Board of Trustees in February.

Faculty News

While the regular academic year marches on, many faculty have been involved in activities outside the GDA community. Kathy and Doug Guy (Spanish and German), Betsy Clark (Athletics and English) and Al Finn (English) are taking computer literacy and basic programming courses. Dave Williams (History) teaches a Western Civilization course at Raytheon through Fitchburg State College. Doug Miller (Science) teaches public speaking to business executives in Boston and Larry Tretler (English) will be the assistant director for the Theatre Company of Newburyport's winter production of Twelfth Night. Recently, Donna Roaf (Dance) brought to campus an outstanding professional production combining modern and jazz dance and ballet. Chris Stowens (Music) continues to receive recognition for his composing, playing and directing of the Red Sneakers group.

GDA Travels

This fall receptions for alumni, parents and friends of GDA were held in a number of locations throughout the East. Mrs. Meredith Homet, mother of Dan Cross '81, hosted over fifty parents and alumni at her lovely home in Washington, D.C. At the Clambake Club overlooking the cliffs of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gordon '69 graciously entertained a large gathering of parents and alumni from the Newport/Providence and Southeastern Massachusetts area. In Falmouth, Maine, Mr. and Mrs. George Lord '39 opened their home to the Governor Dummer Portland family for a fine evening of downeast socializing, and at their home, Mr. and Mrs. James McGuire '65 hosted over twenty-five alumni from the New London, Connecticut area.

In November, The Great Hall at Faneuil Hall was the place to be for the annual Boston gathering of over two hundred Governor Dummer alumni, parents, friends and faculty. The lively and historic spot was an ideal central location at which to gather such a large and enthusiastic group.

Alumni from the classes of 1932 to 1982 attended, as did many parents, both past and present. There was also a large turnout of current faculty and of the Old Guard, which allowed alumni and parents to reminisce, as well as to catch up with current happenings at the Academy. Headmaster Jack Ragle welcomed the group and presented brand new renderings of the proposed Edgar Kaiser Art Center. He reaffirmed GDA's commitment to complete as promptly as possible the funding for the renovation of the Stone Garage into the art center.

Special recognition was given by Bob Anderson, Director of Athletics, to two very special Governor Dummer people - Buster Navins and Mac Murphy, in the form of citations voted by the Governors of the Independent School League.

Locker Rooms Nearing Completion

The masons, plumbers, electricians and carpenters are busy at work on the locker rooms adjoining the Murphy-Frost Arena. The facility will be completed this month for use by the hockey teams, and by the girls' teams this spring.

The cost of the locker rooms is $150,000, $50,000 greater than originally anticipated. Even though short this amount, which must be raised, the Trustees and Headmaster agreed to proceed with construction because of the dedication shown by parents and alumni during the fund drive last spring.

For those alumni who remember skating on the Ingham Rink, or even on the present ice before the roof was erected, this new hockey arena has come a long way in two years as the result of efforts and gifts of many people. All are cordially invited to come and see the complex.

"Governor Dummer PM" Starts With Financial Management

Becoming educated is a life-long task. That is the philosophy which led to the sponsoring of a very exciting and innovative Allies program "Governor Dummer PM", created by Arnie Wood '60. This evening series brings experts from diverse fields onto the campus for discussions about special topics.

Personal Financial Planning, held during this past fall, was extremely popular with parents, alumni and members of the Academy staff. In six specialized seminars, financial professionals taught the fundamentals of personal money management. Our "professors" included George Needham '56 on estates and trusts, Sam Tamposi '71 on real estate, and Joseph Cook '53 on insurance. An Academy trustee, Arnold Wood initiated this innovative series based on his parallel successes with our current Economics students.

What's next? The Allies are looking forward to expanding the PM offerings. If you would like to be on our mailing list for future programs, or to teach a seminar, contact:

Annual Fund Continues Record Pace

The 1982-83 Annual Fund is on its way to another record-breaking year. With a $250,000 goal, already the generosity of alumni, parents and friends of the Academy is being felt. As the pace picks up, the campaign stands as of the year end at $174,062, $5,745 ahead of last year. Also encouraging, is the number of gifts received — 1,283, compared to 1,172 last year.

"We look forward to another great year," says Alumni Fund chairman Tim Greene '50. "So far, more alumni are giving this year than last - a broad base of support vital to this year's and future successes."

"Just look at our numbers," observes Greene. "Over the past five years participation has risen 10% and dollars 80%. For the health and strength of the Academy, we hope many more alumni who have thought about giving, but just haven't, will be moved this year to write a check and send it along. Our level of giving and participation must increase if we are to remain competitive, attract high quality students and continue to excel in our offerings."

"Last year 41% of GDA's alumni contributed to the Alumni Fund. We're shooting for 45% this year. Last year the highest level of participation for a class was 83% (Class of '37) and the lowest level of participation for a class was 18%." Greene cites these statistics in the hope of spurring additional gifts.

Parents Fund Moves Ahead

Under the direction of Mr. Dan Daley, P'84 '85, and the Parents Committee, the Parents Fund continues to move ahead after a strong start this fall. With a goal of $58,000 from the Classes of '84, '85 and '86 and the ultimate of 100% participation, the group's organizational efforts are paying off.

As of December 31, the fund is reaching new highs with a total of $47,541 and already 188 of the parents have contributed.

Parent giving over the past three years has increased by 203% (that's not a misprint!) under the able leadership of hard-working and dedicated parents and a truly generous and supportive parent body.

Senior Parents Fund Underway

Detailed renderings of the new Edgar Kaiser Art Center were presented to parents attending the senior parents dinner held in November, which officially launched the drive to help complete funding for the new facility. Chaired by Fred and Sandy Adams P'83 '84 the new Senior Parents Fund is now independent of the Parents Fund for parents of undergraduates.

"A successful fund drive will enable the Senior Class parents to leave a gift to the Academy that will be a permanent and visible symbol of appreciation for the educational experience that Governor Dummer has provided our children," says Mr. Adams.

Many schools have separate senior parent fund drives. Because of the growing success of the overall parents fund, the trustees at Mr. Adams's request unanimously and enthusiastically endorse his proposal that the senior parents gifts be designated for a project of their choice. They have chosen to give their money towards the new Art Center.

Foreign Affairs Speaker

"Real possibilities for lasting peace in the Middle East" was the theme of Dr. Bernard Avishai during a recent foreign affairs program at Governor Dummer. Author of the forthcoming book The Tragedy of Zionism, Dr. Avishai presented a lively historical perspective of Arab-Israeli relations in the region as well as his thoughts about long-term solutions to the issues.

Dr. Avishai was brought to GDA and introduced by Jonathan Auerbach '74. Jon, a scholar of Middle East relations, is a graduate of Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts.

Professor Avishai of MIT spoke thoughtfully of the mounting diplomatic and military pressures to achieve lasting peace against the backdrop of the Beirut terror. In a question and answer period students received Dr. Avishai's views about Reagan policy and the role of the press.

Dr. Avisai launched a year-long examination of the Middle East in the Academy, which will be followed by specialized films, debates, and course materials. This program for the entire student body is funded by a grant from the Civic Service Foundation, established by the parents of David Long '74.

Phonathons

The fall phonathons were especially successful in bringing many alumni back in touch with the Academy and in surpassing last year's totals.

During ten nights of phoning in Boston, New York and Byfield, 54 alumni and 13 students received pledges totaling nearly $35,000. The Academy greatly appreciates the support of so many dedicated alumni.

Wang's Generosity Supports GDA

Governor Dummer Academy over the past several years has been particularly fortunate to receive substantial support from the Wang family, both financial gifts and gifts of computer hardware.

It began in 1970 when Dr. & Mrs. Wang were looking at schools for their son Courtney. They explored GDA at the urging of Dr. Wang's colleague and friend Charles E. Goodhue, III, a graduate (Class of '43) and GDA trustee (1966-1975). Courtney, indeed, enrolled and graduated in the Class of '74. Dr. Wang served as a trustee from 1972-1974.

In the summer of 1975, Courtney called Dick Leavitt, Director of Studies, saying that they wanted to donate some computer equipment for use in the curriculum, asking that he put together a list of needs. In consultation with others Dick did write a proposal, listing equipment which would get a basic computer education course going. Courtney came back and said something to the effect . . . "Where's the rest of the list!?" What followed was a gift of a Wang Laboratories cpu and disk drive, terminal and printer and a small stand-alone terminal with dual floppy disk drives. Overnight, GDA went from having no computer equipment to a modern system for student use. The next year, the alumni office began to share time (nights) with the students for name, address and data storage.

Over a period of three to four years the system met the needs of the Academy, but as the curriculum continued to develop along with greater requirements in the alumni and development office and other administrative departments, the need for a larger capacity became obvious.

Last summer, Dr. Wang responded to our request for a larger system for administrative uses by essentially donating a 2200 MVP-256k with a 90-meg Phoenix disk drive, six terminals, two line printers and two daisy-wheel printers. Ten times faster, this equipment will process in twenty minutes what before took four hours.

The earlier Wang system with three work stations is used solely by students, yet we know we must be able to respond to their pressing need by developing eight to ten more work stations (micros) in the immediate future.

Governor Dummer is, indeed, grateful to the Wang family.

Alumni Association By-Laws Change Proposed

The Executive Committee of the Governor Dummer Academy Alumni Association is proposing an amendment in the By-Laws of the Association which would change the way members of the Executive Committee are elected.

Currently members are nominated by the Nominating Committee, which is appointed by the president (Sam Wakeman '61), and elected by the Committee at their meeting which precedes the general alumni meeting on Reunion Day. Members are elected for a five-year term. The By-Laws allow between nine and thirty-five members to serve on the Committee; currently there are 18 members.

The proposed change would call for members to be elected by ballot which would be circulated to alumni via the Archon published in April. A simple majority vote would win. Write-in candidates would be counted. However, to assure an orderly process, the Nominating Committee would solicit the names of alumni who might be interested and willing to serve on the Executive Committee, beginning in January, again via the Archon. They would then contact recommended alumni to determine their willingness.

The reason for the change is simply to give all graduates the opportunity to recommend and vote for alumni to serve on the Executive Committee.

The change, if adopted by the Executive Committee, would go into effect in '83/'84. Your queries, comments and suggestions are solicited and may be directed to:

For review by alumni we are reprinting Articles I and IV of the By-Laws stating the purposes and goals of the Alumni Association and The Executive Committee.

Article I. Purposes of the Association

As the organization of the Alumni of Governor Dummer Academy, the purpose of the Association shall be to:

1. Strengthen alumni support of the Academy and increase the alumni contribution to its progress and development;

2. Express alumni views in Academy policies, plans and affairs;
3. Develop ties of fellowship and sociality amongst the alumni.

Article IV. Executive Committee

A. Function. The Executive Committee shall be the executive body of the Association and as such it shall be in charge of and responsible for the direction and management of its affairs. In accomplishing this function, it shall specifically:

1. Build support for and interest in the Academy on the part of its alumni;
2. Represent the alumni in Academy affairs and development;
3. Assist the Academy in communicating with its alumni;
4. Seek to strengthen the Association and encourage fellowship and sociality among its members.

The Families of Governor Dummer Academy

In the following listings, we have attempted to record the names and relationships of family members who have over the years graduated, attended or in some way served Governor Dummer Academy. Fathers, sons, daughters, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, cousins. There are hundreds! So, right at the start we want to begin with an apology. We are sorry about any omissions; they are certainly unintentional. We should appreciate hearing from you the names of your relatives whom we may have overlooked so that when at some point in the future we repeat this listing the record will be more accurate. We have not attempted to research extensively and list separate uncles, aunts, cousins, or other relationships through marriage; they have been given only when immediately known. Otherwise, we would have been at it till 1987 and published a 1,000 page volume.

The family which has the longest continuous affiliation with Governor Dummer is the Withington family of Plymouth, beginning in 1831 and spanning 150 years to the present. The Reverend Leonard Withington, minister of Oldtown Church in Newbury for 69 years, served as a trustee of the Academy and President of the Board of Trustees at various periods from 1831 to 1852. Nathan Noyes Withington, his son, attended the Academy in 1845-1846. Nathan's son, David Little Withington, attended the Academy from 1866 to 1870 and served as a trustee from 1883 to 1888. Lothrop Withington, David's son, served as a trustee from 1957 to 1965. Three sons of Lothrop Withington - Paul, Dennett and Nathan - are graduates ('45, '55, '58) and two of his daughters married graduates, Spencer '39 and Ben '43 Brewster (they are brothers!). Paul's son, Tucker, graduated in 1971 and Nathan's daughter, Heather attended the Academy from September 1980 to June 1982. Nathan (best known as Nuff) has served as a trustee from 1972 to the present. Counting all relations within the Withington family (direct and by marriage) seventeen people (at best count) have been a part of Governor Dummer Academy.

Another family with a long father/son relationship is the Charles W. Morse family of Newbury. Their three sons - Charles, Jr. '47, Robert '51 and Donald '57 - attended the Academy as did/are their respective sons - Charles III '66, Peter '80 and Rick '83.

Of the well-known Pearson family of Byfield, Benjamin Pearson the 8th graduated in 1916, Ben the 9th in '44, and Ben the 10th in '72. Ben the 7th had been a trustee at the turn of the Century.

From the Leary family of Newburyport and Seabrook, NH, have come six, beginning with father John '48 and children Kathleen '79, Joanne '81, John '82, Michael '84 and Tim '85.

In our current student body, the greatest number of siblings enrolled are the Nesbit brothers of Manchester, MA - Chris '83, John '85 and Tim '86.

We hope you will enjoy scanning the listings of the families of Governor Dummer Academy. In some cases, individuals may not have gone through to graduation; nevertheless, we have included them with what would have been their year of graduation. Once again we apologize for omissions and errors and ask that you send the Alumni Office detailed information about any in your family whom we have overlooked.

Parent Profile: Drs. Feingold and Johnson

GDA's well known television doctors.

Dr. Murray Feingold

In our highly technological society, medical breakthroughs are being made every day, from research toward cures for cancer and other diseases, to the use of an artificial heart. The progress is truly miraculous. Over the past few years even television, as a form of mass communication, has made its own breakthrough in the field of medical broadcasting.

"I would like to believe that as a medical communicator I (and others) can provide the motivation people often need to take responsibility for medical decisions in their lives."

Gone are the days of reporting only news, weather and sports. Today, included in nationwide network programming are TV doctors, often recruited by individual stations, to provide a variety of medical advice and discussion, ranging from brief news inserts and weekly series, to live specials and documentaries.

Here in Byfield, along with millions of other Americans, we have been able to tune in to two members of our own community, Dr. Timothy Johnson and

Dr. Murray Feingold, both fathers of GDA students, who are hard at work as TV doctors.

Although in recent years TV stations have taken a much more active role in providing medical programming beyond shows such as "Marcus Welby", Doctors Johnson and Feingold have already been involved in medical commentary for over ten years.

"I have received support and encouragement from my colleagues at Harvard and elsewhere."

Dr. Feingold's beginning in TV medicine came as a result of a number of regional presentations on his specialty, research in genetics and birth defects. "The response to these talks was positive, yet I was frustrated that I couldn't reach a larger audience. It was at this time that I was approached about the idea of presenting my work on television. As a professor and active member of the medical profession, I wondered whether such a move would fit into my professional code of ethics. By the time I was approached again, I had the proper okays from Tufts and the hospital, and decided to give it a try. I've been with it ever since."

Dr. Feingold is well known as the Medical Editor of WBZ Channel 4 News (Westinghouse Broadcasting and an NBC affiliate). A pediatrician, he is the Director of the Center for Genetic Counseling and Birth Defect Evaluation Service (New England Medical Center - Boston Floating Hospital), a Professor of Pediatrics at Tufts University School of Medicine, well known and extensively published in his field.

Dr. Johnson was approached about appearing on television in 1972 while he was teaching emergency medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital. After going through nearly the same acceptance process that Dr. Feingold explained, he eventually became the host of Boston's Channel 5 talk show "House Call." Since that time, Dr. Johnson has become a full-time medical commentator, and perhaps one of America's most recognized television doctors.

Currently, Dr. Johnson serves as Vice President for Health Programming at WCVB-TV, (ABC) Boston, is the Medical Editor for "Good Morning America" (ABC-TV), and is the author of a daily, nationally syndicated newspaper medical and health column. He also maintains staff positions at Harvard Medical School and Mass. General. Reflecting on his involvement in TV medicine, Johnson states, "It has really been a pleasure to work with the people at Channel 5. As a locally owned station, virtually anything I have wanted to try, they have been willing to support. At the same time, I have received support and encouragement from my colleagues at Harvard and elsewhere. It's nice to know that there is absolutely no pressure to alter the content of what I want to offer."

"I'm even told by my colleagues that when a patient comes in with advice from one of our shows, it sometimes relieves the initial pressure on the doctor."

Both doctors feel good about the response from their viewers. Dr. Feingold expresses the point that, "I feel best when I realize I am able to provide immediate medical help to people. It is my goal to simply inform people about some fundamental topics such as frostbite, the common cold, and sunburn, to name a few. I tend to stay away from controversial topics, because I think it's the down-to-earth subjects that are most helpful to the general public.

Dr. Johnson believes that through his programs, he is helping people to change their overall health behavior for the better. "It's hard to find scientific evidence as to whether people are actually taking my advice," he says. "What we do know, however, is that typically our advice prompts people to go to their own doctor or clinic to pursue whatever issue is troubling them. There is no question that you can reach more people initially on TV compared with one-on-one."

Considering the oftentimes confusing volume of health care information with which we are presented, both men are comfortable that they are able to present advice to viewers in a non-threatening way. "People look upon a TV doctor as someone who's close," says Dr. Feingold. "In many cases, people are uncomfortable approaching their own doctors with problems, because they're afraid of what they might discover. This doesn't mean we take the place of their doctors, however. It simply gives them a place to start. I'm even told by my colleagues that when a patient comes in with advice from one of our shows, it sometimes relieves the initial pressure on the doctor, as we have provided a sound information base. It makes their life easier."

"What we do know, however, is that typically our advice prompts people to go to their own doctor or clinic to pursue whatever issue is troubling them."

Dr. Johnson specifically likes to refer to his overall role as that of a translator. He feels he has the ability to begin to bridge the communication gap that often occurs between the medical profession and the public in providing understandable health care information. "I would like to believe that as a medical communicator I (and others) can provide the motivation people often need to take responsibility for medical decisions in their lives, as well as providing the information that is useful in accompanying these decisions."

"People look upon a TV doctor as someone who's close."

For Drs. Feingold and Johnson, the future of medical broadcasting will, no doubt, expand even further. While each remains true to his own style and professional commitment, they are quick to support one another, as they both believe they are ultimately working to achieve similar goals. Not only do they support each other professionally, they are neighbors and socially their families are close friends. "We have even sent our kids to the same schools - GDA and Brookwood," remarked Dr. Feingold.

Their relationship to GDA in particular has been a strong one. Father of Justin '86 and Rachael '84, Dr. Feingold is often seen on campus keeping up with their activities. Dr. Johnson is also frequently on campus to cheer on son Nolden '85 in his numerous athletic contests. For the past two years, Dr.

Johnson has been an active and enthusiastic member of the GDA Parents Committee as well as working on behalf of the Parents Fund.

The Governor Dummer community is fortunate and proud to have these men as dedicated members of our parent body. The next time any who have read this article tune in to Dr. Johnson on "Health Beat" or "Good Morning America," or Dr. Feingold on Channel 4 News, they may have a greater appreciation for the nature and impact of the work of these men, both on and off camera.

Tartuffe: Classical Theatre at GDA

David Kinder '83 as Tartuffe, Mike Jasse '86 as Damis and Elea Kemler '83 as Elmire.

Students Perform Admirably in Tartuffe

Director Larry Tretler decided not to take the easy way when he chose Moliere's Tartuffe, the 17th Century French classic, for the fall production of the Governor Dummer Academy Players. The play is extremely difficult: the motivation of some key characters assistant director, was truly amazing in the amount of time and energy she put into the production. One of the most distinguishing factors of Tartuffe, other than being GDA's first classical theatre, was the most impressive and visually striking set, designed by English teacher Al Finn. The actors were elegantly costumed; the men even wore their elaborate long wigs as if they were perfectly at home in the 17th century environment. The sense of style, period and character never deserted them.

This year's English exchange student David Kinder '83 as Tartuffe made the most of his famous entrance. After hearing about the character for twenty minutes, the audience, not knowing quite what to expect, is presented, however, with a delightful mix of pious posturing and innocent looks. Kinder is an exceptionally talented young actor with fine timing and almost dancelike movements.

Adam Hirshfield '83 as Orgon performed what is probably the most difficult role of the play. Orgon's lack of moderation and near hysterical behavior was marvelously expressed by Hirshfield. He was ably supported by a very strong cast. Each member developed a strongly individualized characterization, but always subordinated it to the cause of ensemble playing. Special delights were, among others, Elea Kemler '83 as Elmire and J. Elizabeth Martin '83 who, as Orgon's is unclear, the exposition long, the humor subtle with few easy laughs, the subject near tragic, and all in verse!

The production proved Dr. Tretler's faith in his actors and technical crew was not misplaced. Rochelle Smith '84,

Adam Hirshfield '83 as Orgon mother, left us with no doubts as to where her son's stubbornness came from.

Dr. Tretler should continue to choose such difficult and important plays. Under his direction an amateur cast rose to the occasion and treated the audience to an impressive production of one of the great plays of French literature.

The Arts are alive at GDA

Programs in the Arts have become increasingly popular during the past few years at Governor Dummer Academy. Nearly three-quarters of the student body are involved in some way either in visual arts, photography, music, dance or drama. Typically during the year three art exhibits are held displaying the work of faculty, students and local artists, three theater productions, a student dance recital and several music department concerts involving the band, chorus and various individual and group performers. Student and parent support for music programs is excellent. The academy is also allowing a few selected professional groups to use the Thompson Auditorium, (the Theatre of Newburyport, the Ipswich Summer Theater) when discount tickets are made available or when shows are put on for the students.

Fall Sports: Tremendous Spirit and Tough Competitors

The fall athletic season was a good one for the Governors. Over 15 fall sports squads (Varsity, JV's and Thirds) collectively accumulated a record of 65 wins, 65 losses and 18 ties. Praises go to hard-working GDA players and coaches.

Many individual outstanding performers were honored for their play by the coaches throughout the Independent School League (ISL) but, better yet, the overall team spirit and supportiveness for each other was outstanding.

MVP Jonathan Gibbs '83 gains ground.

Men's Soccer

The GDA varsity men's soccer team began the season hoping to take the Northern Division title or the Gummere Cup Championship. Although the team did not win either, the squad has to be credited with having tremendous desire and depth, much of which can be attributed to the fine coaching of Mike Mulligan '71 and leadership of senior co-captains David Hoffman and Chris Laganas.

Mulligan said of the team: "We finished the season with a good 7-5-3 record. The team ran harder than any team we played. Every game was strongly competitive."

Laganas and Hoffman received All-League squad status, as did Steve Bucknall '85. Laganas received the MVP award, while the Navins Award, named after long-time GDA coach Buster Navins, went to Rick Morse '83 as the senior who through hard work epitomizes GDA soccer.

Football

With a record of 2-5-0, Coach Ed Rybicki spoke of his team as one of the finest he has ever had at GDA. "This football team was the most successful team that I've coached in 13 years, if you truly believe that it's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game. We improved every game, and we were never outhit," commented Rybicki. "The only thing you can ask for is for your players to give 100 percent, and these kids always did that."

Two GDA players were named All-League: Jon Gibbs '83 the third player in Rybicki's history as a coach to be voted All-League by acclamation, at defensive end, and Tim Sullivan '83, who was commended for his play on the offensive line. Steve Shula '84 and Mark Kagan '83 received honorable mention. The MVP award, voted by the team, was given to Gibbs.

Cross Country Runners Excel

The Governor Dummer Cross Country teams enjoyed a very successful season this fall.

Fielding a team for the first time in three years, the womens' varsity, coached by Debbie Farmer, ran to a 5-4 season, placed fourth out of six in the ISL and fifth out of six teams in the New Englands. Except for sophomore Esmee Huggard, a 3:45 marathoner, none of the other four girls had ever run competitively before this fall. Esmee was 2nd in the Milton Invitational, won almost every race she ran in, took second in the ISL Championship in a school record 19:55, and won the New Englands by a minute over the #2 runner. A small, but courageous team - these five!

The men's varsity matched last year's team, posting a 7-3 record, losing only to Belmont Hill, Thayer and St. Paul's (Class A). Coach Dave Abusamra and GDA hosted the ISL Championships, as we did eleven years ago at the meet's inception. The Varsity finished 7th of 16 teams, missing 6th by two points; and at the New Englands, the team placed 7th of 19 teams. Captain Greg Skaff '83 led the way losing only twice, and raced to 7th in the ISL's (school record 16:59), 3rd in the New Englands and 11th in the Meet of Champions. Greg was backed by a team that provided talent and commitment, and a junior varsity whose talent will keep GDA in the forefront next year.

High scorer Hope Williams '83 breaks away for the field hockey team.

Field Hockey

Says Coach Betsy Clark about the field hockey team: "This year's team was the best ever, strong in all positions and with tremendous spirit. Throughout the season, we had a shot at the championship, but we played against some very competitive teams who had improved greatly."

With a 7-5-2 record, and a 4-5-2 in league play, finishing 6th among twelve teams, the squad had great depth; seven solid defense players, six attack players who were able to move the ball down the field consistently, and two super goalies. Seasonal

Women's Soccer Team Hustles to Meet Challenging Season

With an inexperienced women's varsity soccer team, Coach Bev Guarino knew there was a challenge ahead. While pointing out that the won-loss record was not weighted with "W's" (a 3-8-2 record), she applauded the girls for their enthusiasm and hustle. "We never quit nor let up in any game. The girls deserve a lot of credit for their stick-to-itiveness," praised Guarino.

An All-League award went to Meredith Lazo '85, who also received the teams' MVP award. Teresa Russo '83 won All-League honorable mention.

highlights included defeating Phillips Exeter (which makes any season great), and handing Nobles their only loss of the season.

Senior Becca Lapham at center-half was unanimously elected to the All-League team for the second year, was the team MVP, and voted the Best Player in the League. Senior Wendy Stetson at right wing and high scorer Hope Williams at right/inside link both received All-League honorable mentions.

With eight returnees next season and a strong junior varsity (7-5-4) the outlook for next year is also good.

In Memoriam

REMINGTON A. CLARK, Class of '44, of North Andover, MA, of a heart attack suffered on a business trip to Rochester, NY, early in November. President of the Class of '44, varsity letterman in football, basketball and baseball, member of three committees in his Senior year, Rem suffered a heart attack several years ago, recovered, succumbed to a fatal one two weeks after enduring the loss of his second son, Chris, in a motorcycle accident. He is survived by his wife, Suzanne, his older son Remington II (Biff) '67, two grandchildren, a sister, and a nephew Albert Rock (Pebble) '62. His classmates, who while in school accorded him the greatest honor within their power, will be saddened to learn of the loss of their leader - as will we all.

The Academy extends its sympathy to Philip Worcester on the death of his father, WALDO T. WORCESTER, Class of 1920 on November 19, 1982. Mr. Worcester wrote: "Dad's devotion to Governor Dummer Academy was always foremost in his memories. Dad was 81 at the time of his passing!"

From out of the West comes the good news that PAUL THOMAS continues to pursue the active life: "Have just converted to the hunting season from my usual Wednesday and Saturday golf. There are several excellent duck clubs within 100 miles; one is about 70 miles away, has only eight members, provides mostly duck, some geese, and a few pheasant. We only shoot until noon, a matter of conversation. Otherwise, I try to oversee the aggressiveness of two of my sons who own and most successfully operate the business. The other son, Paul, Jr. operates a very flourishing winery near Seattle, bottling only dry fruit wines, under his own name. And to hark back only a few years, he was a professional school teacher."

"At the moment," writes JOHN CHANDLER in October from the political firing line in New Hampshire, "I am running for reelection to the state Senate (5th term), which has become an expensive undertaking." But just to show that not all his industry has been devoted to sporting the senatorial toga, he adds, "I have two great-grandchildren — so far."

From Wisconsin ROGER PAGE reports: "Retired as Plant Manager of Manufacturing for Mercury Marine, a division of Brunswick Corp. Past President of Immanuel Trinity Lutheran Church and South Hills Country Club. Last January 9 received outstanding service awards from the Fond du Lac YMCA, the United Way, and the Association of Commerce. Still like to travel and to play golf and racquetball."

WALTER TEMPLE sounds a happy note: "I am enjoying all the pleasures of a retired person — by painting historical landmarks here in our valley (CA). Say hello to all."

Along with an added contribution, HARRY CHURCHILL submits, "This is a stretch gift in honor of our fiftieth year," and concludes with what must be the subtlest announcement of retirement the Archon has received in a long time. "Incidentally, I do not have a business address; Churchill Mfg. Co. has been sold and liquidated."

Richard Segler, Class Agent

In answer to the Archon's plea to tell us what you're doing, SETH BAKER replies with succinct candor, "Very little." Then adds, "But with great style, flair, penache! Those who know me tell me I am being more successful at this than when seeking to prove my reason for being."

The Archon sends its sincere condolences to JOHN HINCHMAN, who has recently lost his wife.

Reporting an enviable life style, HOWARD PACK writes, "With my wife Buzz, I spend the summers based in New York's Berkshire Hills. We travel about New England, and this past summer toured Italy. We spend our winters gardening, fishing, golfing and maintaining our home in sunny Palm Bay, Florida, fifty miles south of Cape Canaveral."

Belying the often fallacious image of the sedentary retiree, RICHARD SPRAGUE reports, "Retired to Hancock, NH. Volunteering at several places. Playing tennis and golf, and bicycling cross country in the winter. Am an active collector of Revolutionary arms; occasionally write an article."

Any members of the Class of '37 out there ready for a challenge? CHARLES SOMERBY, JR. questions, "Am I the first great-grandfather in the class?"

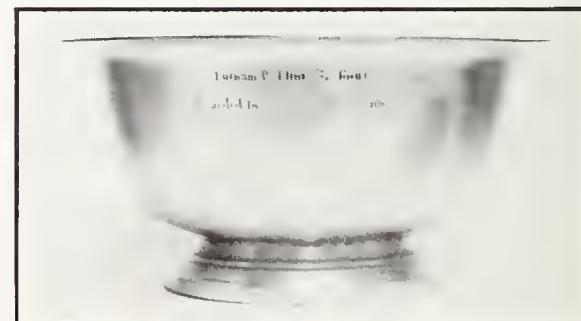

The Academy extends its deepest sympathy to Put and Dottie Flint and their family on the loss of their infant grandchild. Born December 17, 1982, Isaac Vasmer Schrank, son of Elliot and Rebecca Schrank (Put's daughter), died four days later of congenital heart failure. Isaac's middle name, Vasmer, was after Put's brother, class of '34, who was killed in the Korean War.

E. Ashley Eames, II
Class Secretary
Baker River School
Wentworth, NH 03282

"The note asking me to be class secretary came at just the right moment in my life! I was ready to be back in touch with all of you, and it has been just wonderful. Thanks for asking, GDA, and thanks to you for responding." ASH EAMES. . . Last June I moved from Newburyport (where I'd been working with various "stop Seabrook" groups) to the Plymouth, NH area to join the staff of a special five-year-old school, Baker River School. It was begun by friends of mine from Worcester where during the 1970s I was doing prisoner's rights work. My daughter KT was a student at BRS (she's now at Hampshire College), and I've done many workshops here so it is not new to me. The backpacking and mile-long hike up to the school is new for me! Come up for a visit and some cross-country skiing this winter (Wentworth, NH).

WEB DANN (4 Rumsey Rd., Buffalo, NY 14209) - I am beginning my 7th year at Nichols School. During the year, I serve as 8th grade Dean (103 boys and girls), teach math and help with admissions. During the summer, I set up a variety of summer activities, and once they are underway, I can get away for several weeks. My hair is starting to gray, my midsection is slightly larger, but my health and spirits are excellent. P.S. Among other things, I collect keys - all varieties. I have upwards of 5,000! I also collect OLD Buffalo memorabilia. Have maybe 1,500 items.

WEB KITCHELL (Box 4637, Santa Fe, NM 87502) - I am minister of the Unitarian Church of Santa Fe, NM. Got tired of being minister of First Unitarian of Houston, TX and realized big church ministries are mostly administering. So I am the first minister of this little church and love it. Also delight in the glories of NM and Colorado mountains...backpacking and photographing. Married again last year...Nancy is a psychologist at the penitentiary of NM...our children are grown and gone, but love to make extended visits in Santa Fe. So we are busy, but have time for lots of fun in our lives. And congratulate ourselves on being smart enough to get out of the rat race and enjoy life!

BILL DAY (Lt. Col. USAF [Retired], 1720 So. Ditmar St., Oceanside, CA 92083) - Nice to hear from you! After my retirement from the USAF, 1 June 1977, I moved to Oceanside, CA. In September of that year I joined the Wes Johnson's Insurance Service. In 1979, I became a limited partner and am presently the Manager of our Escondido, CA office. (Business is great!) Since my marriage in October of 1953 to Gloria Saplin of Danvers, MA we've had five children (two boys, three girls) and currently have one grandson plus one other on the way! Life has been good to me as I hope it has been to all of you.

STU OTIS (817 Ravine, Decorah, Iowa 52101) - The past 11 years we have been living in Iowa with the fall corn and teaching parttime in two Iowa colleges. We plan to move back to Lake Forest, IL next summer. We will have two kids at home, two working and two in college. We plan to spend a couple of months cruising on the Great Lakes in our sailboat. My wife is working hard as a teacher, and I will be working with a group finding employment for Chicago youth.

STEVE SPACIL (Homat Ragal Apt. 330, 3-2, Roppongi 4-chrome, Minatoku, Tokyo, 106 Japan) - Still stationed in Tokyo, running a "technical intelligence" operation for General Electric. Along the way, I've learned to speak fair Japanese; that and English let me communicate reasonably well throughout the Pacific area. My stepson, Jared Squires, GDA '80, liked his visits here to the point he's now at a college in Osaka for his junior year. For recreation, I've been an amateur videoer (Japan produces some of the world's best video gear) and a scuba diver (the Japan coast and the Pacific islands offer some of the world's best dive spots).

35th

PHIL GEMMER (92 Foreside Rd., Cumberland Foreside, ME 04110) - Living (loving it), working and playing in Maine - Portland and Sugarloaf Mountain areas. Three sons: P. Wheeler, off to Mexico for two years with First National Bank of Boston; Frederic, married for one year, looking for work in the Boston area; Christopher, at college in Michigan - all attended GDA. Active in automobile business plus community affairs. My wife (Alice Plamer) and I look forward to a little more "leisure" travel, x-country skiing and fly fishing. We keep fairly close to GDA and like what we see. I want to learn more about former classmates!

HOUGHTON CARR (RD #2, Owangena Rd., Cazenovia, NY 13035) - I am now product planning manager for Carrier International Corp. My oldest son lives at home, my oldest daughter is married and living in New Jersey just over the river from Philadelphia. My second son, David, is a senior at the University of NH. My youngest, Marjorie, is a senior at Cazenovia High School.

PETER HOUSTON (10 Cross Street, Amherst, NH 03031) - After 21 years teaching and coaching in independent schools, for the past seven years I have been Amherst, NH Recreation Director. My wife Mannie teaches nursery school, Bill, fifteen, is a budding Paleontologist, and Kate, thirteen, helped produce a championship for her recreation soccer team. I have been active for a number of years in amateur theatre including roles in 1982 area productions of "Arsenic and Old Lace", "Oliver", and "L'I Abner". Tennis, cross-country and alpine skiing, and camping are top priority family activities.

Bad news from Stratton Mt., VT and BOB HARDY: "Had back surgery six months ago and am still recovering from an automobile accident last year."

ALAN FLYNN is on a four month sabbatical after serving as Rocky Hill School's headmaster for seven years. He has spent the time traveling in Japan researching and acquiring up-to-date knowledge of the rapidly changing country. When he returns to Rhode Island in January, he will offer a course on the Cultural History of Japan to the high school students as well as an evening seminar to parents and friends.

JAMES McMANUS is living in Weston, MA, is in commercial building sales, reports that he works mostly in eastern Massachusetts and New York.

DODGE MORGAN writes that he is president and principal owner of Controlonics Corp. of Westford, MA, a manufacturer of telecommunication products and specialty consumer electronics items, that sales are $25 million, and that the company was selected in 1982 as one of the fastest growing privately held corporations in the U.S. He adds, "I have passed operating responsibilities on to a new and young management team and have opened separate 'development' offices in Littleton, MA to plan internal and external (acquisitions) company growth." DAVID POWERS is presently Vice President for Development and External Relations at Colby-Sawyer College in New London, NH. After graduating from St. Lawrence in 1956 and following two years in the Military Police in Georgia, where he met his wife, Runie, Dave returned to St. Lawrence and worked a number of years in different administrative jobs. He then went to St. Paul's School in Concord, NH before going to Colby-Sawyer nine years ago. Dave's oldest son, David Jr., graduated from Governor Dummer in 1979 and is now a senior at Colby College, and son Brian, a Holderness School graduate, is now a sophomore at St. Lawrence. Dave has served with the Governor Dummer Trustees since 1972 and is now a member of the Headmaster Search Committee. Both Dave and Runie were GDA "Parents Representatives" during the Milestone Campaign.

From Barrington, RI, FRED BOWDEN reports that he spends most of his days making elastic bandages, tapes, webbing and narrow knit goods as has been done there for over 60 years. The balance of his time seems to be spent figuring tuition bills for sons Scott, a senior at Trinity, David, a junior at the University of Oregon, and John, a junior at Avon Old Farms School. Further, Fred writes that "McGregor ('51) and Powers ('52) have their work cut out for them on the Search Committee. Good luck to them as they establish the direction of the school for the next 10 years by their choice."

HOWARD QUIMBY writes from Whitesboro, NY that son Peter is now attending Governor Dummer, Class of '85. Howard is employed in the Technical Department of Special Metals Corp. making alloys for the housing and internal engine parts of the Space Shuttle.

From Dallas, FRED SMITH reports that he's been living in Texas for 23 years. Married and five children later, Fred writes that his time is consumed by developing industrial buildings, fattening commercial cattle and growing wheat for grazing. Serving as a Trustee, he stays in touch with the Academy and its ever-present needs. Each summer Fred recharges his psyche in Maine.

FRANK STOCKWELL, your new class secretary, also requires charging of his psyche yearly. This is done at Plum Island (Newburyport) with brothers Ed ('51) and Dave ('55), and with wives and lots of growing/grown children. Frank, Northeast Regional Manager for American Institute of Steel Construction, Inc., is very active in several civil engineers' organizations.

My first column as Class Secretary finds me with a happy abundance of news from willing correspondents.

NUFFY WITHINGTON reports in from the investment world where he is a Vice President of Shearson-American Express, living in Plymouth, Massachusetts. Says he, "I have the standard 2.5 children... Tripp 18, Heather 16, Meghan 4 who was born nine months after the New England Blizzard of 1978. June has put up with my antics for 20 years, which haven't improved any since I chased her around Abbott Academy." Nuff reports he owns part of Locke-Ober's, "which keeps me out of other gin mills."

From Stillwater Cove (Lake Tahoe) Nevada, MIKE DUNSFORD sends greetings. He runs a condominium resort of the same name which is very luxurious, judging by the beautiful brochure he sent along. Prior to this incarnation, he was in advertising for ten years in San Francisco. Divorced, with two children, Mike would like to send his youngest, thirteen, to GDA, but sadly, has encountered opposition on the home front. "My lady met the 'Gump' two weeks ago over dinner in Reno and now refuses to allow me to send my son or her daughter to the Academy." Perhaps Harvey Hayden has a different perspective on the evening.

And from KEN WEENE comes this from East Norwich, NY. Am "primarily in private practice as a psychologist, and enjoying life's rewards." Ken reports he attended a GDA dinner in New York recently and was disappointed to find himself the only member of '58 there. He urges classmates passing through the area to give him a call.

DEMI READ has deserted our hardy climate for the seductions of Palm Beach. "We left Massachusetts in 1979 after fifteen years in Boston. A major change here and we love it. Still in commercial real estate, working with a developer. About to start a fourteen story office building and seven story parking garage in West Palm Beach." As he says, "A great deal is happening in Florida, and we're glad to be part of it." With a Palm Beach address, Demi's sure to get calls from vacationing classmates.

Then in contradiction to all the foregoing, Don adds, "Haven't really done anything extraordinary - still hoping."

From Richardson, Texas, BRYAN HAMRIC reports: "Our daughter, Tiffany, just celebrated her first anniversary since her intracranial surgery to remove a craniopharygioma at Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston last September 15th by the renowned John Shillito, Jr., M.D. She continues to improve and we have high hopes for her future. Our thanks to CHMC, JAY and BETSY COOKE, and TERRY and DIANE GOLDEN for their hospitality while Terri and I were in Massachusetts. than banking." It should be added that though laconic in prose, Ralph sings tenor with the Newburyport Choral Society, is on the board of that organization, and is one of its past presidents.

In a missive replete with codes and puzzles, in a style hardly fit to be deemed "top down," JOHN LEWIS writes from Berkeley, CA: "As a programmer, I sure wish GDA had had a Wang when I was there. No great social news. Recently moved to California. Probably will move again one of these days. Still single."

JOHN MERCER reports that his business, which he describes as "freelance teaching to business people," is keeping him busy. He and Florence are having a room built onto their house in Amesbury, "a room with too much glass for such a rock-filled town as Amesbury." He adds, "I enjoyed writing to class members and receiving news from them. Three of the most interesting replies I have received so far are from classmates who attended GDA while growing up in the Newburyport area. Since graduation they have not necessarily remained close to home in pursuit of their careers.*

REVEREND ALAN CHASE and his wife, Sue, are the parents of four boys: Alan, Jr. (8½), Scott (7), Timmy (2), and Chris (6 months). Today they live in Lynn, MA where Alan is the Northeast Regional Director for Prison Fellowship. "I work for Chuck Colson of Watergate and 'Born Again' notoriety," he writes. "Prison Fellowship is a Washington, D.C. based ministry involved with inmates, ex-offenders and their families, as well as with advocating reform within the criminal justice system." Alan's path to his present position has included acquiring a Master of Divinity and study for his Doctorate. And he has worked at one time or another as a Boy's Club Director, a counselor to a housing and redevelopment authority, a medical technician and a missionary in Haiti. He has a private pilot's license and still enjoys singing, which you may recall he does very well. "GDA stood me in good stead for the subsequent schooling I have had," he says. "I feel I was well prepared for the many challenges that have come my way. Not the least of which is raising four boys, I might add!"

I asked BRIAN MERRY if he still unharnesses his jump shot from time to time. "Too much weight and bad knees have kept me off the courts," he confesses. So, I'll be honest, also. I told Brian I still get on the basketball court from time to time, which is true. I just don't get off it very well, I'm afraid. Brian and his wife, Lois, have three children: Jeff (11), Jill (8), and Kevin (5). They live in Westmoreland, NH, a town of about 1,000 people located near the Connecticut River in the southern part of the state. Brian teaches junior high school math and coaches. He also likes to restore old homes and is presently working on one that is 150 years old. Brian received his undergraduate degree from Bates, where he majored in English. He earned a Master's in Elementary Education from Southern Connecticut State College in 1975.

TOM O'DEA has left New England winters far behind him. He lives in Winston Salem, NC where he owns his own publishing company. Tom is also an author and consultant whose area of expertise is investment real estate. In the past he has worked in apartment development with one of the largest American companies in the field. Currently, he is a senior editor for both the Real Estate Investing Letter and the Rental House and Condo Investor Letter, and he has authored two books on acquiring and managing real estate. John got his B.A. from Johns Hopkins in 1969 and returned to Boston temporarily to obtain an M.B.A. from the Harvard Business School in 1977. He married three years ago, and he and his wife Bette have one child, Casey J.D. O'Dea (9 months). In answer to my question about whether he could see himself in the same career twenty years from now, Tom admitted that he's not sure. "I hope to be retired in five," he said. Well, I've often heard that life begins at 40!

Please keep writing. Peace.

SAM BILLINGS and his wife Barbara report their son Matthew is now two years old and happily announce another tax deduction is on the way.

His classmates will be comforted and happy to learn that TIM KEENEY is Deputy General Counsel for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce, located in Washington, D.C.

FORD SCHUMANN reports that he has received a degree in music from Washington College, a surprise to his classmates, who thought he played only lacrosse.

From Atlanta, STEPHEN UHL submits some bad news: "Hard times; four operations." Some good news: "Hoping to publish my first Sci-Fi novel."

ROBERT VAUGHAN checks in with the following brief but vital stats: "Kelly, 4; Julie, 2; and Christopher, 3 months."

Even briefer, but not more vital, JOHN WHITMORE reports: "Three girls: 13, 9 & 8."

In recent months, MAC BARNES has acquired his second degree and third child. From NYU came a Master's in Quantitative Analysis, and from his wife Ann came Heidi Jennifer, checking in at 8 lb., 4 oz.

The last Archon placed JOHN EASTON in southern California. Actually, John lives in the Chicago suburb of Palos Heights.

"I've been recently assigned to Sears Roebuck's new trading company, Sears World Trade, Inc. in charge of marketing to the Middle East and Africa," writes RAY HUARD and issues an invitation: "Any alumni interested in details, call me at Sears Tower, Chicago, (312) 875-7172."

Fragments from Far and Near: JOHN CESARINI graduated from Simmons (Boston), getting a Master's in Social Work. CHARLES B. JOHNSON, JR. (CA) is with the Bureau of Reclamation, works with farmers, has his M.A. in Soil Science. From Kentucky, CHARLES S. JOHNSON, III reports he's building a house, grows corn, soy beans, and some cattle on a 1,200 acre farm. "I've been married since 1976, been farming since 1976 too; don't know which is harder. But it's the nicest way to make a living I can think of." Not realizing how quickly children mature in the beautiful Ohio River Valley, Charlie's classmates, considering the dates above, may be momentarily mystified by his reporting a son age 11 and a daughter age 4. In a reminiscent mood he signs off, "If I'm not in a farm field next spring, maybe I could be on a lacrosse field."

"Starting my own company," says DONALD HAYES, "with three other inventor/developers of the optical video disc, the Optical Disc Corporation with offices in Cerritos, CA. We will make DRAW (direct read after write) mastering machines for the film and video industry. Buyers welcome -send money! No more Wong weekends for this kid."

Substantiating his claim that he's in the home entertainment field, HARRY KANGIS declares he's married, has a 16 year old and a 13-year-old (boys? girls? both? neither of the above?).

DENNISON KEENEY, TX, with American Pile Driving, has driven enough piles to buy a new home.

From Williamsburg, VA, DANIEL LOOK announces that he is V.P. of a Food Management concern.

CARL SPANG, NH, proudly asserts he has a new daughter, name of Dana Emily.

MARC URANN says he's teaching seventh grade in the Plymouth, MA public schools.

Joining the Benedicts and brother DR. LAWRENCE MARTIN '60 in the matrimonial marathon, BOB MARTIN was married in September in LaHonda, CA to Betty Conover, formerly of Charlestown, IN. The ceremony was performed at the couple's home in the redwoods and was followed by a reception at the San Gregoria Christmas Tree Farm with country/western music. Both engaged in publication, Betty is publications manager for the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, and Bob is an assistant editor at Sunset Books, a division of Lane Publishing Company.

Partner in the Boston law firm of Gargill, Sassoon & Rudolph, JIM RUDOLPH, in a gracious, welcome and becomingly modest letter to Headmaster Ragle recently wrote: "The school records will show that I was not an outstanding student; in fact, I am sure I graduated in the bottom quarter of the class." (Ed. note: "Bottom quarter" in what regard, Lawyer Jim? Let's review the evidence.) "However," continues Jim, "Governor Dummer provided me with an education and experience which were invaluable to me in the years following my graduation... I plan to be at the Boston area Alumni function on November 5 and look forward to seeing you there." (He was; he did.)

Not bad for starters! I've received 22 questionnaires so far. This class continues to set records. Here are the results in summary form (with a bit of poetic license):

1. Most everyone has been married at least once (no one admitted to being unusual).
2. Employment of some variety seems to be a common denominator.
3. Those who answered were mostly conservative in their politics. (No Marines - where's Rick Robbins?)
4. Tim Tenney's sex life still seems enviable, and only a few admitted to theirs being worse now than at GDA.
5. Most everybody is now, is trying, or soon hopes to be in good physical shape. (Nice work Greg!)
6. Special skill development since graduation seems somewhat limited. (RICK WHITTEN takes the cake — he digs up dead Indians.)
7. Most everyone actually finished college. (MIKE SHAY even got MBA and LLD degrees. He didn't say whether he was underpaid or overpaid!)
8. You're not likely to read about any of us in too many publications, unless you subscribe to the Newtown Bee (FOLLENSBEEN), the Houlton Pioneer Times (ACE PIERCE), the Yoga Journal (STRIDER), or the Archon (O'LEARY - nice job Ralf!).
9. Careers seem to be satisfying to most:
  - PHELPS HOLLOWAY owns a chimney sweep and space heat company (lost in space).
  - NED LATTIME is in research at Sloan-Kettering (always was the guinea pig).
  - SHEL SACKS is minting money as a dentist/capitalist (he's about to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange).
  - JIM BAYLEY and GARRY MARTIN are both Orthopedic residents (where is Orthopede, anyway?)
  - JOHN NELSON really wants to operate a "high speed digital read-out computer", whatever that is.
  - DOUG BRADSHAW is teaching in Avon (or is he selling Avon door-to-door?)
  - DAVE FRANCIS is still carrying around musical instruments (his own company, Timbre Audio Inc.)
  - MIKE MILLER is in show biz (he appreciated the stamped return envelope!)
  - BILL COLE is still doodling in class and has his own advertising agency.
  - BOB AMSLER is still tangled up in wires and formulas at Westinghouse Electric.
  - STEVE HANDY is Irving Trust's man in the Middle East (His life insurance is payable half to GDA and half to me.)
  - ALBIE NELTHROP (get this one!) is the Assistant Attorney General in St. Croix. (RALF O'LEARY was treated royally by Albie on a recent trip there, so maybe he runs a little something on the side!)
10. Nobody cared much about speaking fluent Latin, and even fewer felt like sending me any money. GDA though was high on everyone's giving list, so please keep it up and let's help Peter Dorsey to become the Chairman of the Annual Fund for 1983-1996.

Keep those cards and letters coming!

DR. GARRETT MARTIN announces the birth of his first child, Brandon, on November 5, 1982, a potential candidate for the GDA Class of 2000. "Both baby and mother doing well," says Garrett, making no mention of the father's delicate condition in this precarious predicament. The Archon sends congratulations, hopes he too is doing well.

"I am starting my eighth year at Loomis-Chaffee as dormitory head, coach, and English teacher," writes NATHAN FOLLANSBEE. "My newest role, however, is father to Robertson Gibbs Follansbee, who was born on June 2, 1982. He is our first child," and Father Nat concludes with a burst of paternal pride: "He has been terrific."

Autumn colorfully swept through New England again this year, and some new old faces have reappeared. After writing for Harvard Magazine and then attending Cambridge, in England, for his MA in English Renaissance Literature, DON BARKIN has been reporting for the Middletown Press, in Middletown, CT. Despite Wesleyan's presence, Don writes, Middletown is predominantly a working class community and provides a rich diversity of subject matter to keep Don well occupied and content. He is married to Pam. Hi Pam!

Living in South Hamilton, MA, FRANK and SUSAN CHASE have their hands full with their two-year-old son, Joshua Douglas. Frank has been with the Merchants Bank of New England for about two years now, before which he had been teaching at the Brookwood School, where Mr. Ogden was headmaster. JAY JAMES and his wife, Barbara, who, incidentally, also works at Merchants Bank, have a little boy, John Jr., who is also two years old.

JOHNS CONGDON is still mastering the art of custom-built 18th Century American style, Queen Anne, and Chippendale furniture. Johns and his wife, Jane, live near Montpelier, Vermont and have two children — Laura, 2½ and Lucas, 5. Johns works solo in his shop and informs us that he will be issuing his first catalog of his custom furniture designs in December, 1982. If you would like a copy, please write him at: R. D. #1, Box 350, Moretown, Vermont 05660. He'd love to hear from you. Johns is also in touch with NICK MEYERS who lives nearby in Winooskie, Vermont, where he runs a greenhouse and vegetable farm in the summer and does carpentry work during the winter months. Nick has a degree in horticulture from UVM, and he and his wife Bridget have a son, Timothy, who is 16 months old. Terrific!

News from PETER ESHEDMAN indicated that HENRY EATON was working for a television news program in Boston. Peter is alive and very well in Philadelphia where he continues to play guitar with a rhythm and blues band which has been recording their own music. He also has a friendly German Shepherd Collie.

Jon Imber tells us that BOB JAFFE'S wife, Jill, expects her first child in December 1982. Congratulations! Bob succeeds his father as President of J & J Corrugated Box, which is in the Boston area. JON IMBER (PhD, UPenn) taught sociology for a year each at St. Lawrence and Lehigh, respectively, and last year obtained a tenure-track teaching position in the Sociology Dept. at Wellesley College. He is currently preparing a book for publication, but most enthusiastically reports that he and Amy Ettinger, a painter, will be married in January, 1983. Congratulations! Jon inquires as to the whereabouts of the illustrious, former GDA chaplain, Bill Dubocq. When heard from last, Bill was a pastor in a church in Leominster, MA. Incidentally, BILL TOBEY recently bumped into Peter Mercer who informs us that he has been Suffield Academy's chaplain for the past several years. Bill Tobey, still an available bachelor, continues his law studies and this year left publishing to join the Springfield, MA law firm of Bacon, Wilson, et al. as a lowly law clerk, for the "experience".

RON LATHAM and his wife, Kay, have two boys — Justin, two in November, 1982 and Adam, four in December, 1982. Ron, who has an MLS from Simmons, left the librarian position in Athol, MA last year to assume another head librarian position at the Southbridge, MA Public Library. Currently, he is helping coordinate a computer system shared with other Massachusetts libraries. He and Kay bought a 100-year-old Victorian cottage in Southbridge which they are in the process of renovating and getting cozy for the chilly winter months ahead.

RICH WELCH called and reported that he is in his fourth year as an associate with the law firm of Choate, Hall, in Boston, where he specializes in civil rights, environmental and securities law. Some of his environmental projects have included the Merrimack River and the Charles River Watershed Council. During the past few years, he has also managed to grace GDA with his presence teaching adult evening courses in law and society and business law. And for fun, Richard pursues trout fishing, (in Colorado when he gets a chance) as avidly and perhaps with as much fervor as old Ahab pursued whales! Richard mentioned that TOM PRICE lives out West (Oregon, perhaps?), is married and has a child. And DON BARKIN mentioned that TOM TURNER was teaching at a boarding school in Washington State. Finally, EMERY BOOSE is married to a young lady who is pursuing a graduate degree in biology at Harvard and together they live in the Harvard forest. Emery was doing graduate study in Sanskrit at Harvard, and last we heard, enjoyed his evenings relaxing by the fire, casually leafing through the pages of the Rig Veda and rhythmically chanting some of its familiar psalms.

On that note, as Autumn whisks by, we'll leaf you until the next issue. Write!

Captain PETER BLAKNEY, his wife Kathy, and daughter Robin (1½ yrs.) are living in Fort Knox, KY. Peter is a captain in Armored, regular Army.

"I married Patricia Lemon of Charleston, WV on August 28, 1982," reports JAMES BROWN, IV from Washington, DC. "My best man was JACK CUTLER."

A hydrologist (a specialist in ground-water geology) GUY SWENSON is with an engineering firm in Syracuse, NY. He, wife Gayle, and daughter Sara (18 mo.) live in Liverpool, NY.

"I've been living in Arecibo, Puerto Rico for about a year where I've been running a subsidiary of Dexter Shoe Co. My wife Karen and I have been enjoying the Puerto Rican lifestyle. My job has been a fabulous learning experience, and I'm also trying to learn Spanish. If any classmates visit the Caribbean, they should be sure to give me a ring. Rebekah, our daughter, is now 2½ years old and wild like a monkey. Karen is expecting our second child in May" concludes PETER ALFOND with pride.

"I spent the 10th of November talking to long-lost classmates during the phonathon, a great way to catch up on everyone. I'm working for the broadcast division of the Wall Street Journal. Very cosmic - satellites and all! (I'm working the prop set though, flying between earth-bound affiliates.) And to everyone I missed during the fund drive, you can call me now at (212) 288-7009; I don't have any more pledge cards," writes GIG BARTON issuing a challenge.

Making an offer his classmates can't refuse, BRAD BLOOM writes, "Recently Terrie and I have moved to Wellesley, MA and would like to hear from classmates in the area."

"Just released solo LP to critical acclaim, lackluster sales," reports JOHN ETNIER. (Ed. Note: Accompanying clipping from Maine Sunday Telegram handsomely substantiates critical acclaim, understandably reticent on "lackluster sales") "I'm now working on a work of music commissioned by the Ram Island Dance Co." adds John, "and I'm working as engineer at Fishdraks Recording Studio in Portsmouth, NH."

"As of September," reports WAYNE GRAY, "I've been on the staff of the Newburyport YWCA Pool for ten years, teaching swimming, first aid, canoeing and boating, the last in the Berkshires as a member of the faculty of the National Aquatic, First Aid, and Small Craft School. I'm expecting to get my Instructor Training rating in Water Safety this fall. When possible I do some canoeing and camping on my own and occasionally some woodworking."

PETER HARRIS reports an interesting venture: "I am a Research Engineer at a genetic engineering firm in Maryland. The research is top notch, but the business outlook is questionable. I am working on cloning animal growth hormones. Nina, Melissa and I have just bought a house and are enjoying Gaithersburg, MD living. We had an extensive garden this past summer; however, it was still below the standards of David and Laura Abusambra. I've been player-coach of the local men's soccer team; this autumn. We're 4-1 and currently in first place. Best wishes to all GDA faculty and to the Class of '71."

Faculty member Mick Mulligan '71 talks with Mr. Paul Cryts P'83 on Parents Day.

"I was promoted to Vice President in the International Division of Manufacturers Hanover Trust in July 1982," says MIKE HOOVER. "My area of responsibility: Greece and Cyprus."

Of mundane matter, MIKE KAPLAN reports, "I've been working in the family business of making leather for the past eleven years." Then, as if to show that in those years all his time was not tied up in the tannery, he adds, "I've had the good fortune to meet a girl from Texas, and we were married in 1979. We're expecting our first child in January. We've been living in the seacoast area of Maine and New Hampshire, presently in Portsmouth, NH. Hello to all!"

"I'm still with K-2 Corp. (Seattle ski manufacturer), writes DAVID LAMPERT, "and happily based in Hanover, NH when not traveling."

Describing what must appear to some of his foot-bound classmates as the best of all possible worlds, ANDY NELSON replies, "I continue to travel back and forth to western Europe with great regularity, buying and selling antique and estate jewels and jewelry."

Submitting for his classmates a list of questions in the trivia category, MARK NICKERSON asks, "(1) Who played golf before breakfast? (2) Who comprised the Odyssey Four? (3) What happened after pitcher CHUCK SAMARAS shook off three of LITCH's signals? (Answers below; but don't look yet!). In the not-so-trivia category, Mark adds, "Moved to Belcher-town, MA from Ann Arbor, MI two years ago, completed a Master's in the social work program there, and in October married Ann Della Bitta." Answers to his questions above: (1) McMENIMEN; (2) COHN, LAPAGLIA, NICKERSON, SHACK; (3) he threw the pitch into the backstop.

For the Happily Married Registry, RICH NIETSCH posts, "In September I was married to Patti Clark of Guilford, CT; SCOTT SEAYER was one of my ushers." And he adds, "I am now entering my third year at Celanese Corp. in New York City as a senior financial analyst in their treasury finance department - and enjoying it very much." And upper west siders in the Big Apple take note: "Patti and I are living at 310 West 79th Street, Apt. 5EB, New York, NY 10024."

In what he calls his "life history, such as it is," ERIC PETERS writes of scholarly pursuits and matters marital: "I graduated from Colorado College in 1977, having designed my major around the ethnohistory of peasant and rural society. I wrote papers on the settlement of Martha's Vineyard and on the demography and economy of Spanish Land Grants in New Mexico. After my graduation I moved to Edgartown, MA and worked as a title examiner and law clerk for a local attorney. I specialized in tracking down obscure property descriptions and convoluted genealogies on Martha's Vineyard. I also cut firewood in the winter to sell. In September 1980 I began law school at the University of Denver College of Law. I will finish in March 1983, then plan to move back to Boston or Edgartown in May. Last August 21st I married Elizabeth Campbell in Edgartown. A 1977 graduate of Middlebury, she is teaching English at the Middle School of Colorado Academy in Denver. CRICKET LITTLEFIELD and DON BARKIN '70 were at the wedding; Don's wife Pam was a friend of mine at Colorado College. I have been doing legal research on litigation in the 1870s over a Spanish Land Grant in southern Colorado with my anthropology professor from Colorado College. We expect our paper on the history of the land grant to be published soon."

On a glum note WILL PHIPPEN begins, "Early senility has struck; went over one hill this year. Same life as usual." Then more cheerfully, he writes, "Work has picked up. The museum (the Peabody in Salem, MA) is planning new construction to house my restoration laboratory among other things. I am soliciting all my classmates via this alumni note and expect some good, charitable responses. All contributions are, of course, tax deductible. STEVE CONNELLY and his wife Kathy will be joining Sandra, Morris and me for Thanksgiving where two GDA grads will be discussing a major corporate reorganization of WWE."

JONATHAN ROOF reports, "I am still working as a branch office manager for Southwest Savings in Tucson. Also I run a small corporation which owns three rental houses. My wife Rose and I had a daughter Leela in May 1981, and Rose finishes nursing school in December '82, when she will then be a registered nurse. In 1975 I graduated from Pomona College in Claremont, CA with a B.A. in religion. I worked for Merrill, Lynch in 1975-77 after graduating."

CHARLES D. SAMARAS, D.M.D. confides, "after graduating from Tufts Dental School last June, I have opened my own office (in Lowell) for the practice of Family and General Dentistry. Though I work a lot of hours, I still find time for recreational sports." Chuck concludes with, "I look forward to seeing some of the other classmates at future reunions."

"I'm a practicing attorney in Lowell, MA," writes WILLIAM SHACK.

"I came to Houston about three years ago as a supervisor for the Southland Corp. (7-11 Stores) and in September '81 was promoted to District Manager. Currently I have 27 stores in the South Houston/Pasadena area and live in South Houston," says LEON SHAPIRO. "I was married on September 25, 1982 to the former Reanna Jackson from Ravenna, OH and Houston, TX, who works for Southland's Training Department. We got back not so long ago from a week's honeymoon in Cancun, Mexico." And just to show you he is now a native, Leon signs off, "Y'all take care!"

Book of Revelations, according to SAM TAMPOSI: "I revisited Mac Murphy's Seminar Room this November and gave a talk to the Governor Dummer Allies on investing in real estate. During my first year at Dartmouth I was drafted by the Army and spent two years in Germany. Following graduation from the Big Green, I tested out B.C. Law School for two whole weeks, pulled an 'about face,' and went to work in the family real estate business. In the summer of '78 I married Sharon McOsker; and we have two beautiful daughters: Jessica, 3½ years and Kristen, 1½. We're presently building a summer house in Maine. Where's Scrubba?" concludes Sam.

The good news from TUCKER WITHINGTON: "Last June Neil and I celebrated our first anniversary; next June we are expecting a member of the Class of 2001. Despite our companies' suing each other, we're still in business. And we're attempting to build our dream house in Plymouth without going broke. Hope to move in this spring. Hello to the Class of '71."

From nearby Lynn, BOB BENSON announces that he and his wife are expecting their second child in March.

And from New York City, BILL CONNOLLY writes that he has been appointed a Vice President of the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York.

PETER FRANKLIN and his wife report from Amesbury that they are expecting their first child in March.

"I'm account manager at a fast-growing ad agency," writes GUS SELKE, "and am remodeling my house, a 1920s Tudor. Sorry to have missed the reunion."

From Stoneham, BLAINE STONE, III reports, "Currently I am half-way through the Master's Program in Business Administration at Northeastern University, and I'm in the process of forming a consulting firm with a C.P.A. and a couple of attorneys. We will be geared toward the financial and legal needs of non-profit corporations. We're calling our firm 'The Non-profit Management Group'. I have been working for non-profit corporations for the past three years and have seen a great need for the expertise we can offer. If GDA needs any help...just kidding! You people seem to be doing nicely and best of luck in your continued efforts in secondary education. Special greetings to 'The Moon.'"

CHRIS SWENSON is touring the Northwest with his evening of dance program, "Solos and Duets." When not on tour, he is at home in Seattle.

Deborah (Eames) McClement, Class Secretary
8 Lester Court
East Northport, NY 11731

TOM CRANE writes that he is happy with his life. In addition to his work as a research chemist in Dalton, MA, Tim is spending a lot of his time cross-country ski training and racing — an activity which he claims has "developed into a general addiction over the last five years!"

From Georgia we hear that the last ten years have been good for JAIKE WILLIAMS. He and his wife, Shawn, celebrated the birth of their first child, Alexis, on January 1st of this year. Jaikie writes that he enjoys the Southeast but does miss the winter sports. He also looks forward to bringing his family north for a visit to GDA.

In June, BRUCE SHELDON joined the Muzak Corporation (a division of Westinghouse Broadcasting) as a marketing representative for the Fairfield County area of Connecticut. He and his wife, Jody, are living in Darien; and Bruce looks forward to attending both the New York Reception in the spring and the class's tenth reunion (June 3-5, 1983) at Governor Dummer.

BUCK O'LEARY was married to Elizabeth Fannon of Bronxville, NY on May 15th. He and Libby are currently living in Manhattan where he is employed by Morgan Stanley Co., Inc. and she is attending the Fordham University Law School.

DEBBIE and ART McCLEMENT also increased their family to three with the birth of son, John, in April. They are living on Long Island, where Art is working as a Structural Engineer for Grumman Aerospace.

This summer ED YOUNG and wife, Sheila, announced their first child, Edward C. Young, II, born in July. The Youngs are living in Boston, where Ed is working for A Better Chance, Inc.

KEVIN McKENNA also plans to join us at the reunion. He's living in Cape Elizabeth, Maine with his wife Diane Fitzgerald. Since his graduation from Georgetown University in 1977, he has worked in the field of food service. Kevin and Diane both work in Portland, he as a consultant, she as an attorney with Verrill and Dana.

Another classmate looking forward to the reunion is WALTER RIVERA. He and his wife, Rachel, along with their two children, Julian and Aiyana have settled in NYC. Walter is employed as an Assistant Attorney General for the State of New York.

On note paper impressively headed "United States Army, Europe, Office of the Commander in Chief," DORCIE BARRY writes, "I am still in the Army stationed with the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Intelligence, in Heidelberg, Germany as an Intelligence Analyst - which is interesting. I will be here till August '84. My daughter, Jennifer, turned five in September and enjoys a variety of activities, especially kindergarten. Would love to hear from anyone who comes over this way and am looking forward to the Tenth Reunion."

After graduating from Northeastern with a B.S. in Chemistry and taking some time off for travel and odd jobs here and there, STEVEN SMITH now supervises the chemical analysis laboratory at Endiopact, Inc., Miami, FL. He is also responsible for the coordination of all quality control procedures. Steve finds time though for plenty of fishing and snorkeling around the Keys, but says he "sure misses the old run down Wildcat after a night of powder snow."

From the West Coast, GLEN WINKEL writes of matters athletic and academic: "It's been an exciting year athletically. After only one year of competitive bicycle racing in Northern California, I've won several local events and was able to compete in the Coors International Bicycle Classic (the US's National Tour) in Colorado and was selected to compete at the 1982 National Sports Festival in Indianapolis this past June and July. Academically, I'm completing my qualifying exams, in my 4th year at UCSF in San Francisco, for my Ph.D. in Anatomy at the Medical School here. I certainly hope I'll be able to make my tenth-year reunion, but the bicycle racing is both costly and time consuming, not to mention the Ph.D. I'm working toward."

David Williams, Class Agent
19 Pratt Street
Providence, RI 02906

Jonathan B. Sendor, Class Secretary
3231 North Seminary Street
Chicago, IL 60657

RICK ATWOOD reports: "Graduated from UMPG (U. of Me. at Portland-Gorham) in '78 with an A.B. in Business Administration. Since then I've been operating a golf car company, also involved in real estate on the side, living in Reading, MA in my custom-built house. Broke my left ankle this time, had a disagreement with a 'Vette; I was on my bike. All healed now and plan on driving to California on it in February '83. I see COURTNEY WANG when he is in town and FORRIE TITCOMB sometimes. I wonder where the hell everyone else is hiding. Best wishes to all and see you Alumni Day if you can make it."

In Conway, NH, JEFFREY BEACH is in a good job with the Kennett Corp., at which he has been working for about one year, has been married also about one year, but "no children - yet!"

CAROL BENDETSON SHUBA happily reveals from Marblehead that she "has a two-year-old son named Bill, plays mother full time and enjoys it tremendously," adding in a glow, "I highly recommend it!"

"I am living in Oklahoma with my husband and two girls while he attends the Army's field artillery school," replies JEAN BETHEL-BAER. "We are leaving this spring for a three year tour in West Germany. I'm really looking forward to traveling through Europe."

CAROL BOSCH says that he is an engineer with General Electric in Valley Forge, PA, has just bought a house, and was recently married.

"I'm living in Framingham and still working for the First National Bank," said FRANCIS BURKE, JR. while making his pledge to DAVE WILLIAMS in the recent phonathon.

From Texas, COLIN CROSS announces (with a sigh of relief?), "Just done with college and am now working with the First National Bank of Boston, in Dallas."

CHARLES FLETCHER writes that he has completed his Master of Science in Geology, that he is working on a Ph.D. in the same area, and hopes to get his degree by Christmas of 1984.

All-in-the-Family Item: DEBBIE POPE, with a business address of Duracell Products in Danbury, CT, announces she is marrying TOM ADAMS, a GDA graduate of '76.

"I am presently enrolled," says ALESSANDRO SCASSELLATI, "in a Ph.D. program in Cultural Anthropology at the City University of New York at the Graduate Center, my second year at this school. I have already a Master's degree in Political Science from the University of Rome. Everything is fine!"

DAVID SCHUMANN is currently in Boston, where he started out in art school, but is now in cosmetology. He hopes soon to open his own business in beauty care.

"Working as an operations manager for Ma Bell," says JONATHAN SENDOR, "and am involved in GDA alumni work in the Chicago area."

A Master of Science degree was recently awarded to SHELLEY SMITH by the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She plans to remain there for most of the research required for her dissertation leading to a doctorate. Last summer Shelley presented a paper to the American Sociological Association's annual meeting in San Francisco. She also found time to visit old friends from Berkeley days and enjoy some much needed R & R.

Fiona (Harris) Lubbock, Co-class Agent
13 Bubier Street
Marblehead, MA 01945

SETH ARSENAULT reports a Master's in French Literature at Boston College. (Either he already has it or is in hot pursuit thereof.) And he is working part-time at The Advertising Club of Greater Boston, which maintains excellence in advertising, a noble intent which his classmates will applaud.

"I recently returned home," writes DEREK BERGMANN, "after touring the States. I am the keyboard player for the Capitol Recording Group 'Prism'. Back from six months on the road, we are currently making a new album. I see CRAIG CLARK fairly often as we are practically neighbors. And we want to know just when the men and women of the infamous Class of '75 are going to invade the West Coast beaches... We're waiting!"

From the political wars in the Second Essex District, MARIA PAPAIOANOU GRAY submits, "Currently I'm serving as my husband's campaign coordinator and working hard for the upcoming election of John Gray to his third term as State Representative of our district." Her classmates will be cheered to know that Maria still plays a winning team: John won handily. She concludes, "The remainder of my time is spent taking care of my two little ones: John Lewis, age 2; and Rosie, 8 months."

DIRK LYON'S sister reports that he came home this summer from Park City, UT, where he'd spent a few years skiing and enjoying life. "He's the best bartender around and really knows the restaurant business well. Now he's attending Sylvania Technical Institute - top of his class. Soon he'll be making it big in the computer world. So you see - he is alive and well and living and happy too!" Particularly happy in having an admiring sister.

CHRIS RICHARDS tells us that his company, C. T. Corporation Systems of Boston, works with corporations, especially as liaison between the firms and government agencies.

At Pt. Reyes Bird Observatory in California, JACK SWENSON is doing bird and animal research. He has a photograph in the Sierra Club's Mountains of North America as well as one in their '83 Trail California.

'76

Nina Chiara, Class Agent

New York, NY 10021

Carol-Ann Goldberg, Class Secretary
17 Gibb Street, #3
Brookline, MA 02146

"I am finishing up my last year at Suffolk University Law School," says PETER LAWLOR, "and working part time at Parker, Coulter, Daley & White in Boston, along with FIONA HARRIS LUBBOCK '75. I am very anxious to be done with schooling." Peter winds up wistfully.

Six words that tell it all: "All goes well in New York!!" exults PERRY SMITH with two exclamation points.

'77

Joseph Pietrafesa, Class Agent
1254 James Street
Syracuse, NY 13203

Tracie (Ackerman) Fornaro, Class Secretary
77 Union Bridge Road
Duxbury, MA 02332

After graduating from Smith College in May '81, SHELLY MILLER helped her father to open up a deli restaurant. Fortunately the food is nothing like GDA's! Shelley just moved to Boston and is hoping to establish a career in Management Banking.

VICKI PAPAIOANOU MURPHY is in the big city of New York, Vicki and her husband John both graduated from The Culinary Institute of America and are pursuing careers in the hotel/restaurant industry. Vicki and John are also managing their own business as private caterers. Julia Child beware!

Wedding Bells have rung! That's right. JOE AND KATHY PIETRAFESA were married in Philadelphia on June 26th. This reunion day we'll be able to extend our best wishes and a Happy 1st Anniversary. DAVID PHIPPEN did attend and can give you all the details. (In case you're wondering, Phip did wear a suit!!)

A weather forecaster for New England Associates in North Adams, MA, JOHN KENT is living in nearby Pownal, VT.

BOB KRUGER graduated from West Point Academy in May '81 and was recently promoted to First Lieutenant. Bob wanted to attend the infamous boat cruise last May, but unfortunately was unable to visit because of the Falkland crisis. His commitment to the Army ends in May '86.

While training for unemployment at B. U. Law School, JACK LU writes that he and HUW JONES are conducting an "in-depth, multi-dimensional, bibidinal analysis of Boston nightlife. Anyone who is local is welcome to join." Any takers out there?

Lance Corporal in the United States Marine Corps since January 29, 1982, ALAN JONES was married on August 23 to Sandra Jo Pagurko of Topsham, ME. Corporal and Mrs. Jones currently reside at Wayside Park, No. 11, Route 2, Burton, SC 29902.

CAROLYN LYONS writes, "I finally graduated from Plymouth State College with a degree in education (cum laude!). I spent the summer on Cape Cod working in a boat yard, and now I'm working aboard a 100' tugboat by the name of Ocean King. My job? Cook! At the beginning of November we, a crew of six plus me, leave for Texas. Eventually I hope to head south again and do some sailing. I've seen both ALLISON McELROY and TRACIE ACKERMAN FORNARO; both are doing very well. I hope the rest of my classmates are enjoying life as much as I."

Recently married STEVE MALLERY has returned to the University of Oregon to complete his degree in Art History and Language.

1983/REUNION

The following information gleaned from the Trinity College alumni magazine of October '82 will be of great interest, though of little surprise, to members of the GDA baseball team of '78. After saying that he would go down in history as one of the finest Trinity baseball players of all time, the rave review of one of Trinity's finest seasons ever continues. "TODD DAGRES is the number one home run king in Trinity's baseball annals and has a .354 four-year batting average and a record-tying 68 RBI in the bargain. But unlike many sluggers, Dagres asserted himself as an outstanding glove artist, handling more outfield chances than any Trinity player before him."

PETER FEITH writes that he is working for the Sheraton Corporation in New York City and adds, "Getting psyched for our 5th Reunion. Be there! Aloha!!"

From Ohio, GEOFFREY GWYNNE reports, "I've not been in touch with GDA alumni too much. Occasionally I bump into somebody — PAM WEBB on Martha's Vineyard, DAVE LOTHROP '79 at Miami University when he was there to play hockey against us, CARY ALLEN '79 on Nantucket — but these rare occasions present themselves unexpectedly." Geoff goes on to say that this does not mean that he has no fond memories of his prep school cronies and backs it up by declaring that he plans to be at the 5th Reunion come the spring of '83.

An ominous notice from WILLIAM JEROME, III: "Completed second and final year at Yavapai College in Prescott, AZ, majoring in gunsmithing."

I returned to college," declares MARY MACKAY-SMITH, "with renewed perspective after my leave of absence in 1981. I will graduate this year, and then I plan to continue my violin studies with my teacher in Providence."

ANNA MARKOS reports she's still at Wheaton College.

Currently living in Cambridge, NANCY MERRILL is working with emotionally disturbed children in a Medford elementary school.

ALICE MOSELEY says, "I graduated from Hartwick College in Oneonta, NY in May of '82, then spent the summer in Dallas, TX working at Presbyterian Hospital. I'm presently taking an Emergency Medical Technician program; then I plan to take the Paramedic Program at Northeastern University."

No easy-chair for JOHN ROONEY, who writes, "I recently completed Surface Warfare Officer School in Coronado, CA and am now attending Communications Officer School in San Diego. Following this I'll be Communications Officer aboard the USS Joseph Strauss (DDG-16), a guided missile destroyer homeported in Pearl Harbor, HI." And get this, "I spend most of my weekends skydiving and hanggliding, and occasionally scuba diving."

GREGORY ROSE writes that he is working towards a Ph.D. in Solid State Physics, asks for information about Reunion plans, apparently hopes to be there.

Not put down by the unemployment bind, ANDREW STEPHENSON writes from Swampscott, "After graduating from Trinity and attending the Hurricane Island Outward Bound program, I have begun the search for the perfect job! In the face of a great deal of unemployment, I still feel I'm making progress."

DANA STETSON announces that he has recently graduated from UNH and is presently working for IBM in New York. He adds that he hopes to see everyone at the 5th Reunion this year.

Via the phonathon and BRAD CLARK, two-thirds wind down the '78 Class Notes with relatively happy tunes: BRABROOK WALSH, III says he'll be at Syracuse just one more year, and JOHN WEBSTER, III allows as how he's alive and well and residing in Dover, NH.

Writing Class Notes can be worse than a U. S. History position paper, especially when the Class of '79 is the topic, but it's good to know that some things never change, or do they?

KIM SAUNDERS, now a Senior at Wheaton College, plans to attend a 2-year program at physician's assistant school after graduation, but for now she's a Biology major and into New Wave.

RICK THERIAULT, at Brown, and MAURICIO DAHER, at BU, are both into Mechanical Engineering programs, and Rick is hoping for a job in the Boston area after graduation, while Mauricio is into "research involving low temperature heat conduction" — whatever that is.

As the Vice President of UVM's Student Affiliate Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, WENDY SILIN is busy interviewing with accounting firms and corporations.

KATHY LEARY graduated from UNH as an English major last Spring and now is considering Katie Gibbs in Boston, because "the job market for English majors is bleak."

After spending most of his junior year in the Peoples Republic of China, MATT PALAIS is in Taiwan and will be returning to Lewis and Clark in Portland, Oregon.

News from Brunswick, Maine, tells me that ABBY WOODBURY is back from her semester in France ("the most unbelievable and best experience" of her life) and looking forward to Lacrosse in the Spring. KATHY COFFIN is a Psychobiology major and has spent the past two summers working in the Neuropsychology Department at MIT where she plans to return next year as a Research Associate. She also writes that she'd like to get the Class of '79 together this Spring for a "warm-up session" to our 5th Reunion. And MARTHA BLAKE, who says that she has finally found her sport — rugby, has plans to attend grad school next year for Elementary Education.

After a year at Hood College, WENDY BIXBY attended Outward Bound at Hurricane Island and is now a General Business major at Bentley College.

JEFF GARNETT can't wait for graduation, even though he loves Bates and is anxious for Lacrosse season to start.

Differences with the coaching staff at Wittenberg ended ANDY LINN'S football career just a week before CBS televised a game he was to start in. He thinks we should have a pre-reunion in Ft. Lauderdale this Spring Break, and promises not to miss Alumni Weekend.

Where Cedric is these days is what JIM RONAN wants to know. He also reports that he's busy "playing rugby, unsuccessfully chasing women, and running away from the Dean" at Holy Cross.

I'm LAURA ROONE in North Conway, NH, where I'm living and working for Carroll Reed Ski Shop on a Retailing Internship from New Hampshire College. I hope to hear from more of you for the next issue.

From JOHN FAIN in sunny Spain comes the Word: "Surprise! I'm in Spain going to school in Madrid to study español. I was in Barcelona for four days, and it's really picturesque and wonderful. I'm with Southern Methodist University and will take art courses at the Prado, and also history. We're with a group from USC too and use all the same facilities. My family is great; we now have six grandchildren and one on the way. (Ed note: His family, we think, probably not John's.) I think of y'all often," concludes John with an SMU inflection.

And from Japan comes news of JARED SQUIRES: "I'm having a great time studying in Japan for the first semester of my junior year." (Jared's stepfather STEVE SPACIL '48 is currently there assigned.) "Hope things are going well with the Alumni Fund."

Though we all miss GDA, most of the class of '82 is adjusting well to his or her new surroundings. MARSHALL ROWE has taken a job in Atlanta, GA working at The Open Door, a refuge for the homeless and hungry. WILL FRIEND is presently working in Gloucester at a boatyard, but as of January, he will be traveling and working in England. CHAPMAN is in Mexico living with a family until Christmas. In January he will be attending Colby College. I am sure that Chapman is finding his stay in Mexico quite challenging for before leaving he did not know one word of Spanish!

Those in college seem to be doing pretty well too! KIM NEWBY is Connecticut College's latest and hottest DJ! And you ask what she plays?...the WHO, of course. RAZ is having a good time at St. Lawrence University and has made the varsity basketball squad. In New York with him is JEANNE BATEMAN, who joined the equestrian team and "looks fantastic in a funny hat and boots." NANCY LORD is having a "psycho" of a time and relays, "Yes Bob, I get ragged-on here too!" CORNELIA WOODWORTH really likes being at Sweet Briar in the south. She played on the varsity Field Hockey team and is going to tour England with the team in January. She bumped into BILL HUTCHINSON at Washington and Lee and they went Frat hopping together. ANN ROONEY is running for the Dartmouth cross country team. JOHN NYE, CHRIS PERRAULT and JON WADE are all enjoying the swinging nightlife at Skidmore! TRINA CHIARA really misses New England though the people at Goucher are very nice. JANE BOISVERT is hoping to go to UNH this winter rather than staying at Regis College. BILL DEE has found a new "center of the universe" and that is UNH.. He sees JOHN THOMAS, GORDON SHALEK, JENNY HAYES, ANNIE-L TORNBERG and TIM TAORMINA, and SCOTT HOLLOWAY has been seen visiting that "center". KRIGGY loves UVM, that must be why no one hears from him! All in all, everyone is doing well! ALISON MILLER appropriately summarizes by saying that college "is totally tubular - to the max!"

Back on the GDA campus from a mid-semester break at Skidmore, JOHN NYE was enthusiastic about the college, said he played some fall lacrosse, is going out for hockey this winter, reports all's well with JON WADE and CHRIS PERRAULT, also at Skidmore. Recently John went to St. Lawrence, where he saw RICH ADAMS, NANCY, RAE and JEANNE, said they too are happy and thriving.

DAVE SCHWARTZ responds, "I'm playing J. V. Soccer and having a great time at Bowdoin. I joined Delta Kappa Epsilon. Say 'Hi!' to everyone for me. The work is tough at Bowdoin, but it's a fine place to be."
